

CALLING ALL
BACCHUS MARSH TRADERS

Welcome the annual harvest by taking part in the Harvest Windows Competition!

The rules are there are no rules...well almost!

Even if you don't open on Sundays then make sure your shopfront is dressed to impress!

Drop your entry form in person at Jeff Jones Plants & Produce or post to PO Box 153, Bacchus Marsh 3340.

Entry form must be received by 5pm Friday 9th March 2012

Contact Name:

Business Name:

Business address:

Phone:

Email:

I am authorised to enter on behalf of this business, and agree to the outlined terms& conditions.

Signature:

With special thanks to The Moorabool News & Bacchus Marsh Tourism Association, your business has the unique opportunity to win one of three amazing advertising packages.

How? We are looking for the best dressed shop window reflecting the annual Harvest Festival theme.

Think vintage farming, apples, pears, berries, grapes, quinces, pumpkins, corn, hay, scarecrows, and feel free to be creative!

It's easy to get involved.

Just decorate your shopfront by Thursday 15th March and have your Window on show through to the night of Sunday 18th March, 2012

Entrants go in the draw for a 1st prize $700 ad package, 2nd prize $350 ad package, or 3rd prize $125 ad package within The Moorabool News.

Prize is courtesy of The Moorabool News*

Conditions apply. Ad sizes can be no larger than quarter page. Consecutive weeks and deadlines apply. Terms may change at publisher's discretion.