SUNDAY, 7TH MARCH 2010

Take part in the Harvest Festival Competitions and you too can experience all the fun of provincial Victoria! Free entry!

Competition winners will take home a delicious Harvest Basket filled with fresh produce & wine!

Are you Victoria's best apple pie baker?
Or the best scarecrow builder?
Could you be a gumboot throwing champion?
Or will you win the grape stomp?

Scarecrow Building

To help celebrate the Harvest Festival, we are looking for the best scarecrow maker in Victoria across two categories!

Category 1: Traditional Scarecrow.
Category 2: Innovative - surprise us!

How to enter:

Entry Forms and scarecrows are to be delivered to Jeff Jones Plants & Produce no later than 9am on Sunday 7th March.

Judging will take place at 3.00pm.

Scarecrows must be collected same day, before 5.00pm. Winners will be notified by phone on Monday 8th March if not in attendance on the day.

Gumboot Throwing Contest

Did you know that since 2003, boot throwing has been a competitive sport in Eastern Europe! Well here's your chance to get some good practice in by heading along to Jeff Jones Plants & Produce. Go on an orchard tour, sample apples, and more!

How to enter: Visit us on the day

When: From 10.00am Sunday 7th March at Jeff Jones Plants & Produce Avenue of Honour

Best Apple Pie Competition

Bacchus Marsh is known for growing some of the tastiest apples in Victoria! We now want to find the best apple pie cook in Victoria!

All entries welcome, from young and old, to first time bakers, amateurs and chefs.

How to enter:

Entry Forms and cooked pies are to be delivered to Bacchus Hill Winery no later than 9am on Sunday 7th March.

Judging will take place at 2.00pm.

Pies must be collected same day, before 4.00pm. Winner will be notified by phone on 8th March if not in attendance on the day.

Grape Stomping Competition

Make your way down to the beautiful Bacchus Hill Winery to experience the breathtaking views over the valley, jazz music, delicious food, and most importantly to jump right in and get your feet wet with some traditional grape stomping!

How to enter: Visit us on the day

When: 2.30pm Sunday 7th March at Bacchus Hill Winery 100 O'Connell Road
